WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

Type: UCITS

Term: There is no maturity date for the fund. The fund company have a right to close the fund and redeem the units, please see the prospectus for more information.

Objectives: The fund invests in shares of small and medium-sized listed technology companies. The companies should have a high technology content, but may be active in different sectors. The fund has global investment opportunities and the managers invest in interesting companies regardless of their geographical location. The companies' market capitalisation at the time of investment may not exceed USD 6.6 billion or its equivalent in other currencies. The size limit is adjusted annually based on the performance of the Fund's benchmark index. Up to 10% of the assets may be invested in companies that are large and/or non-technology companies. The Fund does not invest in companies that violate international conventions or in companies that produce and/or distribute controversial weapons. Nor does the Fund invest in companies where more than 5% of the company's turnover is derived from the production and/or distribution of tobacco, cannabis, alcohol, weapons, gambling or pornography. Furthermore, the Fund does not invest in companies where more than 5% of the company's turnover is derived from the extraction of fossil fuels (coal, oil and gas). The Fund is managed according to Lannebo's investment philosophy of active management. This means that we focus on fundamental company analysis and valuation of individual stocks in companies whose business models we understand. We are independent in our management and make independent decisions. The most attractive stocks, in the opinion of the managers, are the largest holdings in the Fund, regardless of the holdings in the Fund's benchmark. The fund's benchmark is MSCI World Small Cap Information Technology Index. We aim to invest in companies that are leaders in their sectors. We analyse the competitive strength and future prospects of the company and how this is reflected in the share price. The intention is for each investment to qualify on its own merits. We focus on what is important for the company and its long-term development. The fund typically invests in 40 to 50 companies. The Fund's return is determined by the increase or decrease in value of the shares in which the Fund invests over the holding period and the dividends received by the Fund. Returns may increase or decrease due to changes in exchange rates. The Fund does not normally pay dividends; all income is reinvested in the Fund. Deposits into and withdrawals from the Fund can normally be made on any banking day.

Intended Retail Investor: This fund may be suitable for those who plan to hold their investment for at least five years and who understand that the money invested in the fund may increase or decrease in value and that there is no guarantee that you will get back all the capital invested. To invest in the fund, you do not need to have any particular prior knowledge or experience of funds or financial markets.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 year(s).

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets. We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class. This means that the fund has a medium risk of increases and decreases in unit value. The indicator mainly reflects the increases and decreases in the value of the shares that the fund invests in.

Be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the risk indicator shown. Risks not captured by the risk indicator: liquidity risk, the fund may hold large positions in smaller companies, which means that the level of risk when liquidity in the market is limited may be higher than indicated by the indicator.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.
